

When you need to call Australia home

Quick Start

The quick and stylish solution for when your own furniture is in transit

This short term flexible package is designed for executives waiting for shipments of their own goods to arrive. If your own furniture is in transit, our comprehensive range of furnishings will keep you in absolute comfort until it arrives. Quick Start packages take away the need for expensive serviced apartments or hotels and let you get settled into your new home. With Quick Start, you can rent everything you need to set up your new home. Standard or deluxe furniture in either contemporary or traditional styles, appliances, hi fi, TV, DVD, linen, towels, dinnerware, cutlery as well as pots and pans and other utensils.

Long Term

The flexible rental package designed to your individual needs and covering all the essentials you require for longer assignments. The Essentials Package includes standard and deluxe furniture solutions and is very flexible for longer rentals as you can change the furniture items and term, anytime.

At Living Edge Rental we offer an extensive range of high quality furniture items and accessories that blend beautifully with the Australian culture, individual taste and budget.

Benefits of hiring furniture

- Significantly lower cost than shipping
- No damage to your goods in transit
- Right furniture style for your new home
- Tax deductibility
- Less stressful. Packing and moving goods takes time and effort. Renting eliminates issues associated with custom clearances, shipping delays and breakages in transit.
- Eliminates the need for serviced apartments or hotels for corporate relocations, saving money and a second relocation.
- Cashflow advantages of renting rather than purchasing
- Complete flexibility. The length of contracts and choice of product can be easily amended
